16 Proposals re material settlements are already before Govt - the questions of tahavi loans, improved communications & other matters referred to by him have also been being considered.

17 The one matter to which sufficient attention has not yet been paid is the systematic Sanitary Survey of villages (B II in Mr Venkata Rao's list). Early Mr Karve has conducted a Sanitary Survey of about 28 villages in the Kurnool Sub District, but more extended surveys are necessary.

Sir,

With reference to your No. 2697 Sany. 53-15-2 dated the 1st Instant, I have the honor to state that the lines of work indicated by Mr. C. Venkata Rao, in connection with the scheme for the improvement of the Malnad, are generally sound. I would lay particular stress on the proposal to invest the Amildars with the responsibility of practically carrying out the measures approved by the Malnad Improvement Committees. Unless the local officer is closely associated with the improvements proposed to be effected within his own jurisdiction, there seems to me to be little hope of the measures recommended or decided upon ever materialising into accomplished facts. To enable Amildars to devote more of their time to this special work, they may, as suggested, be temporarily relieved of their magisterial or other duties which may, if unobjectionable, be entrusted to the taluk Sheristadars or the Sub Registrars.

2. The problem of attracting settlers also ~~as~~ appears to me to be a very important one. be necessary in order to render colonisation on a large scale in the Malnad possible, to offer all concessions to to settlers - such as exemption from payment of land-tax for a limited number of years and so forth. The colonisation of the malnad tracts should not be haphazard but needs to be pushed forward on definite, well-planned lines, every detail connected with sanitary housing and ensuring sanitary environment being controlled by Government, under a special Malnad Regulation if necessary. In the absence of such control, the constructive process laboriously brought into existence might be irrevocably set back by an aggravation of the very conditions that are sought to be removed. The same forethought and attention to detail that have characterised the laying out of extensions in the Bangalore and Mysore Cities should be exercised in the matter of formation of new towns and villages in the Malnad. Elevated and healthy sites should be ~~chosen~~, streets and conservancy lanes laid out, and drainage arrangements completed before intending settlers are allowed to build houses. It would perhaps be well to make a public announcement early as to what concessions and facilities Government are prepared to give to settlers, the areas proposed to be reserved for colonisation and the rules or regulations by which settlers are required to abide. The precise course of action later will depend upon the extent of response to the announcement, by the public, both in and outside Mysore.

3. When all is said and done about the functions that it is desirable a Malnad Sanitary Officer should exercise, there remains the problem - and certainly the root-problem - of how best to help to secure the freedom of the people from the grip of old-world traditions and ideas in matters sanitary. Not that I suggest for a moment that the traditions are all bad or the ideas all wrong; but that they do not, at any rate, reveal a perception and conscious application of even the most most rudimentary hygienic truth is a fact patent to every one. The primary duty of the Sanitary Officer therefore is to supply new ideas to the people to replace the old and wherewith to remould habits. With a proper lecture-organisation to back him, consisting of Sanitary Inspectors and local School Masters, the District Sanitary Officer should be able to create public interest in modern hygienic methods and awaken a desire for further information.

4. As regards the proposal that native pandits may be trained and employed for vaccination work in lieu of the present staff, there is no reason to believe that native pandits when trained and set to vaccinate will not be as popular - or as unpopular - as the existing vaccinators. The unpopularity of vaccination - to the extent that it might exist - is due not so much to the type of men that vaccinate as to the fact that the villager has a notion quite different from that advanced by modern science in regard to the causation and spread of epidemics of small-pox.

5. One is rather amused at the ambitious programme detailed under C (3) of the memorandum - viz. that one village at least should be thoroughly reclaimed per month per taluk. Were reclamation so easily accomplished, one should be very glad indeed! But unfortunately, the task is a most up-hill one. None the less, the sort of determination implied in the programme is very necessary, if the malnad operations are soon to lead to appreciable results.

I have the honor to be,
S i r ,
Your most obedient servant,

Sanitary Commissioner

Sir,

I have the honor to append hereinbelow the views of the Malnad Improvement Committee, Shimoga District on certain suggestions regarding the Malnad Improvement work contained in Mr. Venkata Rao's Note, received with your letter No. 2695-9 San. 53-15-3 dated the 1st October 1915.

"The suggestions are mostly on the lines already indicated by Government and adopted by this Committee. As regards the resuscitation of depopulated villages and improving and expanding decaying villages, the whole question is one of attraction of settlers to the Malnad which is engaging the attention of the Committee.

All sanitary measures sanctioned by the Committee and carried out, are generally on the lines similar to those suggested in the note.

With reference to the question of divesting the Amildars of the Malnad Taluks of their magistrial powers, and attaching to them a portion of the clerical and executive staff employed under the Scheme, the Committee is of opinion that the changes are not necessary" (Vide resolution No. VI at the Committee's Meeting dated 30th November 1915)
